

ANNUAL REPORT

Witnessing domestic violence is traumatic for children. Using proven techniques, WINGS Children's Advocates help the children to heal from this trauma. Billy* was very emotionally traumatized when he arrived with his mother at the Safe House. With counseling, Billy* learned techniques to heal and cope with the trauma he experienced. Meditation helped him feel calm and improved his sleep. Yoga aided him in overcoming anxiety and increased his ability to focus. Art therapy exercises helped build his confidence and self-esteem. Billy* and his mother are now on the path to happiness and peace.

"The main reason I did not leave was my financial situation. I was/am scared of finding myself and my two children on the street. I have been trying to escape the horrors of living in an abusive environment once and for all. When I was most vulnerable, in desperate need, and feeling completely isolated, WINGS Hospital Program staff gave me my first feathers of hope. They have provided me with resources, one of them being pantry items, to keep me afloat. My children and I have benefited from the kindness of these good-hearted folks, which has given me a sense of relief in a chaotic environment of survival."

A MESSAGE FROM THE CEO, BOARD CHAIR, AND BOARD PRESIDENT

To Those Who Support the WINGS Mission:

As the largest provider of domestic violence services, programs and housing in the State of Illinois, WINGS has become a go-to resource for individuals and families in need of a safe place to stay. Our services continue to keep pace with the growing needs of those we serve, particularly the children, ensuring that the cycle of domestic violence can be broken for generations to come.

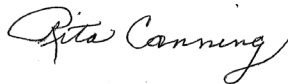

We are grateful for our generous donors, without whom this important mission would not be possible. We are also incredibly fortunate to have such a devoted staff, who tackles this very challenging work every day. Finally, we are blessed with an amazing roster of compassionate individuals that serve on our Board of Directors, Leadership Councils, and as everyday volunteers, who recognize the vision of WINGS and support it through their passion for the mission.

As WINGS enters its 35th year, we are excited for what the future holds. Thank you for being a part of the WINGS legacy. You are helping to provide security, hope, and freedom each and every day.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Darr

WINGS HOSTS INAUGURAL SPEAKERS LUNCHEON

WINGS had the honor to host 66th U.S. Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice; the second woman to have served in that capacity, and the first woman ever to serve as National Security Advisor, at our "Road to Freedom" luncheon on Friday, November 2, 2018 at the Four Seasons Hotel in Chicago. The luncheon featured a Q&A session with Secretary Rice and moderator Greg Brown, Chairman and CEO of Motorola Solutions, to discuss her book Democracy: The Long Road to Freedom.

Condoleezza Rice at the WINGS "Road to Freedom" Luncheon

The luncheon was made possible because of Greg and his wife, Anna, who graciously secured the participation of Condoleezza Rice. Also, we want to sincerely thank Karen Gray-Krehbiel and Trish Rooney for co-chairing the event and for bringing so many new friends of WINGS to the luncheon.

Each attendee received a copy of Democracy: The Long Road to Freedom. The luncheon raised over $1 million through individual and corporate sponsorships and day of donations. This was by far one of our most successful events ever!!

"Condoleezza Rice was the perfect honoree for the WINGS "Road to Freedom" event. Her messages and stories of independence and overcoming obstacles were completely synergistic with the overall mission of WINGS."

FEATURED DONORS

Komatsu

In April 2015, Komatsu expanded its Corporate Social Responsibility strategy. Komatsu added WINGS as the third organization it supports because of WINGS strong reputation and dynamic programs, which serve a critical need in the community.

Komatsu set up donation centers on each floor of their corporate headquarters in Rolling Meadows, providing an opportunity for their employees to have an impact on the lives of those served by WINGS. Each month, employees are given a list of “most urgently needed” items for the WINGS Safe Homes. Komatsu has also participated in the WINGS holiday gift program, back-to-school shoe drive, and raised thousands of dollars to support WINGS programs and services.

“Komatsu's commitment to giving back is seen by adding our strength to organizations, in our community, like WINGS. When we come together to work on a common goal with compassion and empathy, we become a stronger, better organization; which is why Komatsu provides ways for employees to make a difference.” Suzanne Gilbertson-Ohashi, Komatsu Executive Communications Manager

Our Lady of the Brook

Our Lady of the Brook (OLB) is part of the “Silent No More” Domestic Violence Ministry of the Catholic Community of Northbrook (CCN). CCN has partnered with WINGS over the past six years, providing parishioners a way to reach out, in, and beyond their community.

Ginny Hartzer, a parishioner, says “We are attempting to take domestic violence out of the shadows and shine a light on this vital problem.”

Each October, CCN hosts a staff member from WINGS to talk about the issue of domestic violence and provide resources for anyone who might be in a position to offer help for someone in crisis. Over the past five years, WINGS has been the recipient of OLB's “Christmas Sharing” outreach ministry, receiving over $11,000 and over 200 large boxes filled with supplies and gifts for WINGS clients.

FEATURED VOLUNTEER

Craig Powers

Craig Powers began volunteering at WINGS when his son's Cub Scout group wrapped Christmas presents for clients 20 years ago! Since then, Craig has helped at fundraising events and the resale stores, planted gardens at WINGS' homes, served on the volunteer maintenance team, sorted and inventoried in-kind program donations, and for many years, taken a week of his personal vacation to help at the Holiday Site each December.

Craig reflects, "Usually one day each year at the Holiday Site, when I am carrying presents to a mom's car, she starts to cry and says that without the help of WINGS, her children would not have any Christmas presents. After I load her gifts into the car, she gives me a hug. That makes everything we do for them worthwhile...for that is the true meaning of Christmas - to give of oneself."

"The families that are in the WINGS program have been through a very rough time. If I can help them regain their sense of well-being in any way, then I am fulfilled within my heart for I have not experienced that in my life."

Craig Powers

FEATURED IN-KIND DONOR

Natalie Ruzicka

Natalie Ruzicka was introduced to WINGS a few years ago through a coworker who was collecting in-kind donations for WINGS. An avid “couponer”, she donated various household and beauty supplies, and has become a regular donor ever since.

Natalie donates health and beauty products, cleaning supplies, laundry supplies and items on the WINGS Critical Needs List. She has also involved her children, having them drop off the donations with her and creating a family donation box that they all can add gently-used clothing, toys, books, and household items to. She says, “I want them to understand they can make a positive change in the world – no matter how big or small.”

“It’s a privilege to be able to improve the lives of others, and “couponing” has allowed me to do that. I am able to save money on everyday household and beauty essentials and pass them along to those in need; the courageous individuals and families that are taking the next steps in their journey towards safety and independence.”

“Supporting individuals and families affected by domestic violence is a cause that speaks to my heart. I love everything WINGS stands for! There is a way out. No one is alone.”

Natalie Ruzicka

RESALE STORES

With over $2,000,000 in sales during Fiscal Year 2019, the WINGS Resale stores in Schaumburg, Niles, and Arlington Heights continue to benefit WINGS clients and programs. The stores feature a beautiful array of clothing, housewares, accessories, and furniture.

Throughout the year, WINGS Resale stores received media coverage on local television and radio stations. A spot on WBBM radio which featured WINGS in their "Making A Difference" segment was followed by a running spot on WLS Radio. In addition, several television stations; ABC, FOX, and The Jam - WCIU, all showcased the incredible selection of fashionable items available in each store.

WINGS is committed to provide customers with exceptional customer service and to drive increased customer engagement and market share. The success of each store is a result of hard work by WINGS staff, dedicated volunteers, and generous individual, business, organization, and faith community donors.

WAYS TO Help WINGS

ATTEND OUR EVENTS

Learn more about what WINGS is doing and help advance our work through sponsorship, ticket purchases, and auction/raffle donations.

DONATE TO WINGS RESALE STORES

Donate gently used clothing, housewares, accessories, and furniture to stock our resale stores which generate income for our programs and services, while providing for client needs. If you like to host parties, we've developed Things4WINGS just for you. It is a fun way to involve your friends and family in a donation drive.

BECOME A FINANCIAL SUPPORTER

WINGS welcomes financial donations to support the important work we do. This year, the WINGS Butterfly Club was launched for those who want to donate monthly.

VOLUNTEER

Volunteers play an important role in supporting our programs.

IN-KIND PROGRAM DONATIONS

In-kind donations such as cleaning and hygiene products meet the basic needs of our clients, while holiday gifts bring joy.
