Denise Brown

Denise Brown is a passionate activist dedicated to raising awareness about domestic violence.

Following the tragic loss of her sister, Nicole, and the high-profile case involving Nicole's ex-husband, O.J. Simpson, Denise has made it her life's mission to combat domestic violence. She has worked tirelessly to advocate for legislative solutions and has traveled across the United States to share her message and experiences. Through her unwavering commitment, Denise continues to be a powerful voice in the fight against domestic violence.

About WINGS

Mission:

The mission of WINGS Program, Inc. is to provide housing, integrated services, education and advocacy to end domestic violence.

Vision:

WINGS Program, Inc. will help create a society in which every domestic violence survivor has a voice and the resources to break the cycle of domestic violence.

Philosophy:

We believe that everyone has the potential and strength to overcome difficult life circumstances and to accomplish goals that will lead to an enhanced quality of life.

We are committed to treating each adult and child in a respectful and compassionate manner while valuing the unique qualities and needs of each individual and family.

We provide high-quality facilities, intensive client support, and integrated continuum of housing and services. We employ safety planning and a Trauma Informed Care model across all of our services.
