DOMESTIC VIOLENCE DOES NOT DISCRIMINATE.

It exists in every community—including right here on the North Shore. It is often less visible, but no less present. In affluent communities, individuals frequently suffer in silence, constrained by shame, stigma, and fear of exposure.

WINGS has identified the need for a more discreet, highly tailored approach to supporting individuals experiencing domestic violence —the North Shore Outreach Initiative.

This pilot program can only launch with the support of individuals like you who are willing to lead the way. When you step forward, you create a pathway to support individuals in your own community. You will know that you were a catalyst for change, helping to transform lives.
